ORDER:

The Government of Andhra Pradesh is committed to welfare of its citizens and has undertaken number of steps to bring in qualitative improvement in the service delivery to the people of Andhra Pradesh. Further the Government is committed to implement and decentralize governance through a transparent and effective mechanism for public service delivery with an aim to improve living standards of the people. The Government have taken a number of steps in this direction to fulfill the avowed objectives of provision of various government services at the door steps of citizens and enable convergence of all line departments to achieve the said objective. As a step in this direction for proper implementation and institutionalization of the concept to NAVARATHNALU as core theme of governance. To achieve this objective, the Government has established Village and Ward Secretariats in the State with the prime objective of providing a strong governance for implementation of NAVARATHNALU, accomplishing transparency and accountability in delivery of government services to the citizens and by ensuring convergence amongst various departments providing services at the village level. Registration of documents is one of the important activities of the Government and its decentralization would go a long way in ensuing speedy and hassle-free services directly to the Citizens of the State at their door step. This would help in

- Corruption free governance
- Easy access to public services
- Transparency and Accountability
- Qualitative service and speedy public delivery and
- Easy verifiability of land records

2. The Government of Andhra Pradesh has taken up Re-survey as one of the flagship program under "Suparipalana" and decided to conduct the Re-survey of entire State. After re-survey decentralization of Registration services would go a long way in fulfillment of the objective of the Government. Accordingly, vide reference 1st cited the Commissioner and Inspector General of Registration and Stamps, A.P., Vijayawada had sent a proposal to the Government to form new sub-districts of registration at village level. Therefore, it is decided to form new sub-districts at village / ward secretariats for providing registration services at respective Village / Ward Secretariats in the state under Phase I as a first step of convergence in the scheme of Village / Ward Secretariats.

3. The Government after careful examination of the matter, hereby accept the proposals of the Commissioner and Inspector General of Registration and Stamps, A.P., Vijayawada for formation of new sub-districts under Section 5 of the Registration Act, 1908 by altering the jurisdiction of the present sub-districts with the jurisdiction mentioned in the Annexure.

4. Accordingly, the following notification shall be published in the Extra-Ordinary Gazette of the Andhra Pradesh, Dated:11.05.2022.
